REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

TO THE CITIZENS OF NOTTINGHAM:

It is of general interest to record that during the past year Commissioner James N. Pringle became executive head of the State Department of Education, succeeding Commissioner Ernest W. Butterfield, who now heads the Connecticut department. Among Nottingham teachers, the only change was the resignation of Miss Knight to go to Massachusetts, and the election of Miss Glendle Bunnell of Northwood, Keene Normal, '27, to succeed her at the Center Grammar room. All our teachers have had considerable teaching experience, ranging from six to twenty-six years.

Miss Ruth B. Whitcomb continues as school nurse. At the dental clinic last year, Dr. Danforth performed 113 operations on teeth. There is a strong sentiment to continue these state clinics as a feature of our health work. The Parent-Teacher association has been active in holding meetings with outside speakers on educational topics, and in other practical ways. The Red Cross has also co-operated. That the interests of small communities are not forgotten by the educational leaders of the nation is seen by the themes of two great national gatherings to be held this year. The Department of Superintendence at Detroit will consider "Working Together for the Children of America," while the National Education Association at Los Angeles will devote its attention chiefly to "Rural Schools."

Respectfully submitted,

CHESTER W. DOE,

Superintendent of Schools.
